

Shafer Line on Wine

1) Thousands of bottles of wine from the palace cellar of Romania's former dictator Nicolae Ceausescu was recently thrown away by housekeepers to make storage space for what?

Cleaning equipment

2) In 2002 what was the number one imported table wine varietal in the U.S.?

Pinot Grigio

3) Move over corn, what state has eight wineries with five more expected to open?

Nebraska

4) One of India's leading vintners avoids the summertime grape-killing heat by doing what?

Growing and harvesting during winter

5) The Moldovan city of Cricova lays claim to the world's largest underground what?

Winery

With a 40-mile labyrinth of wine-storage tunnels

7) For wine lovers with stuffed-up noses a new product promises to restore full olfactory prowess through the magic of:

A nasal rinse

6) Grapes are tied with what other agricultural product for the sixth most valuable crop in the U.S.?

Potatoes

8) The German government has denounced an Italian wine that bears the likeness of whom on its labels?

Adolph Hitler

9) What device have Korean scientists developed that they claim can evaluate wine and food better than humans?

An electric tongue