

Shafer Line on Wine

1) Grappa was first made in what Italian town?

Bassano del Grappa
(north of Venice)

2) Two thirds of people in a British poll said if a bar or restaurant served them a wine they didn't like they would not send it back. Why?

Fear of looking stupid

3) True or False. By a three to one ratio Sake outsells red wine in Tokyo.

False

Red wine recently took the top spot

4) In 2004 worldwide online sales of rare and fine wines exceeded:

$100 million

5) The wine glut in France has reached such proportions that some wines are now less expensive than what?

Bottled water

6) An Italian winery owner claims he's growing better grapes and scaring away grape-thieving wild boar with what new viticultural technique?

Playing classical music in his vineyard

7) In a recent poll of 400 wine drinkers, two thirds could not correctly describe the meaning of what?

A vintage date

8) The owner of a South African vineyard took what with him on a recent trip to the International Space Station?

Pinotage rootstock which he planted in an onboard lab

9) According to researchers in Boston, moderate wine drinkers have healthier kidneys than who?

Teetotalers

LOOKING FOR A FUN WINE-LOVERS
GIFT? SHAFER'S LINE ON WINE BOOK IS AVAILABLE AT WWW.SHAFERVINEYARDS.COM