

Shafer Line on Wine

1) In 1997 Americans spent $15 million for wine storage units for their homes; last year that number was?

$800 million

2) A British entrepreneur has unveiled a device that he says ages and improves cheap wine by zapping it with what?

Ultrasound
(photos of the interior of the bottle not included)

3) Priced up to $800,000 per acre, the world's most expensive vineyard land is located in:

Bordeaux

4) The consumption of wine in India is expected to double by:

2010

5) You've seen warning labels about drinking and driving. But one wine label in South Africa goes a step further warning against what?

Drinking and walking

6) A woman in the Philippines has entered the Guinness World Records book for carrying 39 of these in one hand at once:

Wineglasses

7) The oldest winery in the U.S., located in the Hudson Valley town of Washingtonville, NY, began operation in what year?

1839

8) According to a centuries-old recipe discovered in Italy's oldest working pharmacy, the secret of long life is an elixir of honey, cherries, secret herbs and:

Chianti

9) The cause of cork taint (a chemical known as TCA), was first identified in what year?

1981

(by a Swiss researcher named Hans Tanner)

LOOKING FOR A FUN WINE-LOVERS GIFT? SHAFER'S LINE ON WINE BOOK IS AVAILABLE AT WWW.SHAFERVINEYARDS.COM