

Shafer Line on Wine

1) A recent 10-course gourmet dinner for 40 at a Bangkok hotel prepared by a group of Michelin 3-star chefs included Kobe beef, Beluga caviar, wines such as 1961 Chateau Palmer, and a fireworks show. The bill per person?

$25,000

(the same amount a teacher in Thailand earns in five years)

2) According to a recent report 90% of French people under 25 will drink anything but:

Wine

3) A newly approved AVA in California called Saddlerock-Malibu contains how many wineries?

Zero

4) According to a new study the biggest wine drinkers among sports fans in the United States are:

Fans of women's golf

5) Since it was first offered to U.S. residents in 1987, how many Americans have passed the rigorous Masters of Wine exam?

24

6) The state of New Mexico has ordered 500 talking urinal cakes for bars and restaurants that will what?

Deliver a recorded anti-DWI message

7) Thanks to an oversupply of wine, wineries in South Africa are now offering grape growers money to do what?

Not harvest contracted grapes

8) A U.S. law called the Volstead Act ushered in what era?

Prohibition (1920 - 1933)

LOOKING FOR A FUN WINE-LOVERS GIFT? SHAFER'S LINE ON WINE BOOK IS AVAILABLE AT WWW.SHAFERVINEYARDS.COM