

Shafer Line on Wine

1) Researchers claim they can produce more electricity from solar panels by treating them with what?

Red wine

2) A luxury resort in the Ukraine is offering a medicinal mix of rosemary, sage and Cabernet to cure what ailment?

Impotence

3) An auction buyer recently purchased a bottle of 1941 Inglenook Cabernet Sauvignon for $27,000. On release the wine retailed for:

$1.49

4) A Balthazar is a massive bottle that holds the equivalent of 1.25 cases of wine. Who is it named after?

One of the Wise Men who brought gifts to the infant Christ

5) The TV show "Falcon Crest" took place at a Victorian mansion, over whose front door was a stained glass window featuring a bird the producers called a falcon. It was however a:

Parrot

6) Recently the Spanish foreign minister got into hot water with local vintners when he admitted to preferring what?

Bordeaux wines

7) To cut out the high cost of barrels some wineries are turning to what alternative?

Oak powder
(which is steeped like tea in wine)

8) Researchers in Turkey claim that grape pomace – the skins, seeds and stems tossed out after winemaking – help kill what?

Bacteria that spoils food

LOOKING FOR A FUN WINE-LOVERS GIFT? SHAFER'S NEW LINE ON WINE BOOK IS AVAILABLE AT WWW.SHAFERVINEYARDS.COM