

Shafer Line on Wine

1) Following a crackdown on intoxicated drivers and a 15 percent decline in wine sales at restaurants, the French wine industry is mounting an effort to do what?

Convince drivers that it's OK to have two or three drinks before heading home.

2) Number of U.S. states that have wineries:

50

3) Number of vine-damaging gophers one pair of barn owls and their young can consume each year:

1,000

4) Although alcohol is banned in Iran, what group of Iranian citizens are exempt from this prohibition?

Armenian Christians, who are allowed to make their own wine for church services

5) True or False: In Victorian England, mulled wine was considered a health drink.

True

6) Cigars, toy robots, a deer head and expensive wines were all listed in a recent report as illegal purchases by whom?

U.S. government employees armed with Uncle Sam's credit cards

7) True or False: Mad Fish, Piping Shrike, Woop Woop, Fifth Leg, Jester and Boonarou are all hip-hop terms for a popular French champagne.

False

All are wine names from Australia

8) France has 466 appellations. The U.S. has how many?

170

9) What nobleman of the past was buried with wine labeled with the year of production, the maker's name and comments on quality?

The Egyptian Pharaoh Tutankhamun