

Shafer Line on Wine

1) Italian vintners are recreating the wines of what lost civilization?

Pompeii,
whose vineyards last produced wine in 79 A.D.

2) The gap between the level of wine in a bottle and the bottom of the cork is called what?

Ullage

3) In 2002 U.S. wineries sold 595 million gallons of wine. That's equal to what other liquid statistic?

The amount of waste water that
Los Angeles treats
in a day

4) Rolling Stones guitarist
Keith Richards

likes to pair what with wine for breakfast?

Eggs

5) California vineyard acreage dropped what percent in 2002?

Two

6) In 1946, Americans drank an average of two gallons of wine per year. By what year did that double?

1980

7) In Sweden, 45 percent of all wine is packaged in what type of container?

Boxes

8) A glass or two of wine a day
is now thought to prevent what?

Growth of polyps in the colon

9) Last year what wine
expanded its lead in sales over Cabernet in the U.S.?

Merlot

SOURCES: 1) Decanter.com, April 24, 2003. 2) Forbes.com, May 26, 2003. 3) Wine Institute and National Society of Professional Engineers (nspe.org). 4) The New York Post, May 7, 2003.

5) The Stockton Record (recordnet.com), May 29, 2003. 6) Wine Institute. 7) Tri Valley Herald, May 11, 2003. 8) Reuters, May 19, 2003. 9) Motto, Kryla Fisher, LLP, May 2003. ©2003 SHAFER VINEYARDS