

Shafer Line on Wine

1) Americans are twice as likely to purchase a new wine if what appears on the label?

An aardvark, a kitty, a giraffe or pretty much any other animal

2) True or false. A hybrid wine barrel is made using wood and titanium.

False

(It contains a mix of oak pieces typically from France and the U.S.)

3) According to a study in Tuscany, a two-and-a-half-acre vineyard can absorb as much as three tons of what per year?

Carbon dioxide gas
(considered a culprit in global warming)

4) Researchers in Italy report that drinking red wine may help us get a better night's sleep because the skin of red wine grapes are rich in what?

Melatonin
(the hormone that regulates sleep patterns)

5) Researchers at the University of Michigan say antioxidants found in red wine may prevent what? Huh? What?

Hearing loss

6) Apes in Budapest's zoo drink their way through how much red wine each year?

55 liters

(zookeepers say it's good for their blood cells)

7) Australian wine exports to China increased how much over the past year?

482%

8) Encompassing a whopping 17 million acres, the largest AVA in the U.S. is?

Ohio River Valley

(straddling the borders of Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia)

LOOKING FOR A FUN WINE-LOVERS GIFT? SHAFER'S LINE ON WINE BOOK IS AVAILABLE AT WWW.SHAFERVINEYARDS.COM