

Shafer Line on Wine[®]

1) Waste water from a nuclear power plant is warming the soil to allow this country to produce wine for the first time.

Finland

2) Located in Portugal, the world's most productive cork oak tree produces enough cork each harvest for:

100,000
wine bottles

3) Balsamina, Entournerien, Chira, Hignin (Noir) and Serenne are synonyms for which grape?

Syrah

4) After Spain, France and Italy, these countries rank 4th and 5th in world vineyard acreage:

Turkey;
the USA

5) The planting of vineyards expressly for winemaking dates back how many years?

8,000

6) Country which is the largest wine importer in the world:

Germany

7) Legal maximum blood alcohol limit in California:

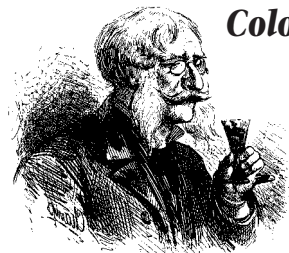

0.08 gpl

In most European Union nations:

0.5 gpl

8) New French research indicates the words used to describe a wine's nose are prompted less by the wine's scent than by its:

Color*

9) With more than 1,400 brands, this country has more wine brands per capita than any other:

Australia

*Research conducted at the National Institute for Agronomic Research in Montpellier showed tasters used typical white wine descriptors when smelling a white Bordeaux, but switched to red descriptors when smelling the same wine that had been colored with an odorless red dye.

SOURCES: 1) www.ananova.com; 2) Decanter; 3) Wine Enthusiast; 4) www.napanews.com; 5) Wine Spectator; 6) Global Wine News e-Monitor;

7) Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences; 8) Financial Times (ft.com); 9) Dan Berger's Vintage Experiences ©2002 SHAFER VINEYARDS