

Shafer Line on Wine

1) A spa in Ontario Canada is offering a new massage ointment, which is a gooey blend of honey and what?

Chardonnay

2) Fifty years ago, just 4% of Britons did it. Today, it's nearer 74%. What has gained such popularity?

Drinking wine

3) To tell the difference between a great old wine and a bottle of vinegar before pulling a cork, what kind of technology can wine lovers now turn to?

MRI scanners

4) Farmers in Lebanon's Bekaa Valley are giving up what traditional crop to raise wine grapes?

Hashish

5) According to a French study, men who drink two glasses of wine every day after suffering a heart attack significantly cut their the risk of what?

Another heart attack

6) According to one well-known science fiction novelist,* Shafer Vineyard's will still be producing Hillside Select in what year?

2026

*Hint — he goes where no wine lover has gone before (see below).

7) How many tourists visited Napa Valley in 2001?

4.7 million

8) What substance produced in red-grape skins is thought to be protective against cancer?

Resveratrol

9) Russian submariners are sometimes served red wine to help deal with what on-the-job hazard?

Radiation sickness

SOURCES: 1) The Standard (St. Catharines), 2) & 3) The Guardian (London), 4) Financial Times (London), 5) The Daily Telegraph (London), 6) Step Into Chaos, William Shatner (Chapter 13, subchapter 1),

7) Wines & Vines, 8) The Tampa Tribune, Aug. 29, 2002, 9) Agence France Presse. ©2002 SHAFER VINEYARDS